

Dried Pollock Plant in Dalian, China

1. Pollock is thawed on a smooth concrete floor while water is showered on the frozen fish blocks.

2. Notice the water on the far left.

3. One of many rows of employees diligently filleting and cleaning pollock.

4. Pollock is tumbled with seasonings: sugar, msg, and salt. The exact combination is a secret.

5. Unloading pollock and placing it in baskets.

6. Pollock must be flattened out to ensure consistent thickness.

7. Cheese cloth is used in this procedure.

8. Rows of tables for flattening pollock.